Upcoming Services

Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, August 23, 10:30 a.m.
Online Service-Zoom link opens at 10:10 a.m.

Puget Sound Worship Collaborative
for the Cedars, Northlake, Saltwater, and Westside UU Churches
Rev. Kristen Kuriga, Saltwater UU Church
Linda Lane, Worship Associate

Join Rev. Kristen Kuriga (Saltwater) and Linda Lane (Northlake) to celebrate the blessing of the animals. This is an opportunity to honor the connection we have with our beloved pets, and to express our gratitude and good wishes for the friendship and care they bring to our lives. There also will be a time to honor and remember pets who have died. We will share a slide show of members of our congregations with their pets.

We invite you to bring your pets to worship with you so we can see them and bless them in our live Zoom service.

Water Ceremony

September 13, 2020
Virtual Worship Service

If you want to participate in this year's virtual Water Ceremony, marking the beginning of our active church year, please take a few minutes to watch these video instructions by Rev. Zackrie. Find out how you can participate by submitting a short video clip.

Submissions will be accepted between now and August 31. These clips do not need to be perfect! The goal is connection, not perfection.

News and Announcements

Pastoral Care Team

Pastoral Care and Covid-19

In recent discussion within the Cedars Pastoral Care Team, Rev. Zackrie confirmed that he would appreciate being informed if any member of the Cedars community tests positive for Covid-19. The information will remain confidential if the person so wishes, but Rev. Zackrie's awareness could help with contact tracing as well as determining what support and possible services could be offered by Pastoral Care Team members and perhaps the larger Cedars UU community as well.

Leadership Learning Opportunity

Harvest the Power—Leadership Course

Serving in leadership roles within a congregational setting can be a deeply spiritual and rewarding experience. These roles also can require us to develop skills and perspectives that differ from other organizational leadership structures.

Recognizing this, I would like to invite current, past, and future leaders to join in an exploration of spiritual leadership with me. This exploration will make use of the Harvest the Power curriculum and help us to develop an understanding of healthy leadership practices within a church setting.

This class will take place in six 2-hour sessions. These sessions will take place from 3:00-5:00 p.m. on the following dates: 09/26, 10/03, 10/10, 10/17, 10/24, and 11/07. To register for this class, use this link: Harvest the Power

Registration will be open until September 18, 2020. Please reach out to me with any questions about this class.

From the Worship Team

Join Our Team!

If you would like to give virtual worship design a try, now is the perfect time. The Worship Team is looking to expand its membership and add a few new Worship Associates as well as people to help with virtual worship Tech Support and Video Editing. Below is a short list of the responsibilities for these two positions.

Worship Associate

1. Provide meaningful spiritual/emotional reflection on worship service themes.
2. Record service elements, such as the Welcome, Offering, and Chalice Lighting/Extinguishing.
3. Coordinate with Rev. Zackrie and other members of the Worship Team to set service themes and craft worship services.
4. Help support other worship activities as requested (i.e. Wednesday Morning Reflection, memorial services, etc.)

The ideal candidate for this role would be someone comfortable recording service elements and working with the rest of the team to design and edit worship services.

Tech Support

1. Help service leaders produce video clips for Sunday worship service elements (meditations, prayers, readings, etc.)
2. Provide technical assistance to people participating in virtual services (i.e. help record testimonials or create picture slideshows)
3. Add lyrics to recorded hymns.
4. Act as a host for You Tube Live/Zoom chat during the worship service and coffee hour.
5. Use software like Open Broadcast Software, Shotcut, and Zoom to provide technical support to guest preachers. (Some training will be provided by Rev. Zackrie.)
6. Help others develop technical proficiency.

The ideal person for this role would have some experience with video production and editing—or be eager to learn.

If you are interested in getting involved in the design and implementation of virtual worship services in any of the ways outlined above, please contact Penny Brewer.

Special Collection for August: UU the Vote Partner Organization

Throughout August, our donations will be shared with UU the Vote partner Center for Common Dreams and their Reclaim Our Vote initiative.

Around the country, Unitarian Universalists are organizing to #UUtheVote, working to increase the participation of millions of disenfranchised, eligible voters—especially people of color. UU the Vote (uuthethevote.org) is a national campaign working with the non-profit Center for Common Dreams. The Reclaim our Vote initiative is engaging voters who have been prevented from exercising their electoral rights through voter suppression and voter list purging.

Volunteers inform and mobilize voters in the six most affected states. They make sure voters are registered, know how to get a ballot, and know where/how to vote. You can learn more about the campaign at this link: Center for Common Ground

Super Suppers-Take Out

Cedars Members Pitch In!

When Super Suppers ended, due to the COVID shutdown, the BARN stepped up to provide meals for those in need. The program through the BARN ended in June, and that sponsor is looking for another grant to provide meals starting again in September.

In the meantime, the Super Supper teams met by Zoom, and organizations volunteered to provide meals through the summer. Cedars volunteered to provide a take-out meal for the last Friday of July.

Members of the Social Action Committee, the Osprey Set Up Team, the Monday Night Women's Covenant Group, and the Journaling Group pitched in to make desserts, contribute food, pack food, and donate funds for the meal. We served pasta salad, green salad, chicken, and dessert. Members of the LDS church helped to hand out the meals to 43 people. Reports back were that the recipients loved the food!

Look for more information and an opportunity to contribute to the August meal. You will find it in a future edition of The Beacon.

In Memoriam

Anne Petersen Tilly

Anne was frequently present and smiling at Cedars' Sunday Services with her daughter and son-in-law, Vicki and Steve Johnson. She is fondly remembered by Vicki as a joyful, kind, funny, and fun-loving mom full of love and grace, and with the most amazing life force and resilience imaginable. Vicki was present at her mother's side as she passed away last week at the remarkable age of 104 3/4.

A celebration of life will take place when it is safe to congregate in person.

Morning Reflection-New Day

Every Thursday, 10:00 a.m.
Virtual Meeting on Zoom

Starting on August 6th, the weekly Morning Reflection will be taking place on Thursday mornings (instead of Wednesdays) at 10:00 a.m. This shift was made by group consensus to accommodate a virtual class that Rev. Zackrie will be taking through the months of August and September.

During the Morning Reflection, participants will continue gathering to meditate on and discuss Stephen Mitchell's translation of the Tao Te Ching.

UUA Orientation for Committee Members

Wednesday, August 26, 11:00 a.m.
Orientation session on Zoom

Over the years, UUA has received questions from volunteers about the UUA: How does it function? What is the organizational structure? Who does what? To whom should I direct my question?

We understand that having vital information about the UUA enables committee members to do their best work in their volunteer capacities. In this spirit, we will be hosting an orientation for committee members which will focus on the UUA as an organization/institution. At the end of the presentation, there will be ample opportunity to ask questions. This orientation will take place on Zoom on Wednesday, August 26th, and it will be approximately 2 hours long. (Start time in PDT is 11:00 a.m.)

Advanced registration is required for this meeting. Please visit this link to register: UUA Orientation

We hope to see you there!*

*This meeting will be recorded, so if you are unable to attend, please let us know, and we will see send you a link to the recorded video.

Cedars Movie Group Discussion

You're Invited!
Friday, August 28, 7:00 p.m.
(6:45 start-up for check-in)

The Cedars Movie Group meets monthly for social evenings and discussion of a selected movie that participants have viewed previously. This month, the group will meet virtually to discuss the 2011 drama, The Help.

Adapted and directed by Tate Taylor from the best-selling book by Kathryn Stockett, the film celebrates the friendship and sisterhood of women: the love and strength of often-stereotyped African-American Southern household help, as well as the Caucasian women who wanted to break free of the Old South societal custom and move forward with Civil Rights and Women's Rights in the 1960's.

The film is available for streaming on Netflix and Amazon Prime, and the discussion will be hosted by Pat and Dean Sampson, using the Zoom meeting platform. For a link and password, email the Sampsons for information, and join the discussion!

Cedars Creativity Fair 2020

Coping with Social Isolation

See What Others Have Been Doing

As first announced several months ago, we have organized a Cedars response to the social isolation in which we all now find ourselves. Missing each other, our identity as a congregational community is suffering, although we are coping as individuals.

Our response has been to re-imagine and present a virtual version of the several after-service Creativity Fairs that were held in Webster Hall in recent years. Organized to provide opportunities to see and appreciate artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs also helped us get to know each other better.

Now, the 2020 Cedars Creativity Fair has opened. Presented as an album of photos on our Cedars Facebook page, it is open to everyone, but it also is just a beginning. Everyone is invited to share what they've been doing or creating during this time of isolation.

Please join us by sharing what you have been doing, and enjoy the growing show! Use the link below to find the show!

Poetic Pause

Cedars Poets

We are pleased to offer you two haiku about origins by Alan Miller.

In prairie grass-lands—
Water doesn't hurry there:
The place of my birth.

Of sky we had lots
And land and wind in plenty;
Shade? Don't waste your time.

Readers' Corner

UUA's InSpirit Bookstore

In times like these, you might need a little extra solace and inspiration. Small but powerful, these books from the InSpirit Bookstore are perfect for a quiet, thoughtful moment and the meditations on resilience, justice, and more will nourish your spirit.

Breaking and Blessing: Meditations by Rev. Sean Parker Dennison. In Breaking and Blessing, the 2020 volume of the InSpirit Series, Rev. Sean Parker Dennison imagines letters from angels, draws on the natural world, and reflects on love and calling. They chart a path, moving here and there, as if across a constellation—connecting mathematics to love, stars to saplings, and breaking to blessing. Rev. Dennison's striking debut will serve as both solace and flame to readers looking for them in equal measure.

Spilling the Light: Meditations on Hope and Resilience by Rev. Theresa I. Soto. At once deeply compassionate and spiritually empowering, this collection of inspirational poetry provides pastoral care and an encouragement for authentic living. In this 2019 volume of the InSpirit Series, one of the most creative voices in Unitarian Universalism today lends to our souls and emboldens us to become our truest selves. Rev. Soto's poems of hope and resilience validate our identities and our humanity—especially for those of us marginalized by mainstream culture.

Love Like Thunder: Meditations by Jess Reynolds. In Love Like Thunder, the 2018 volume of the InSpirit Series, a vibrant new poetic voice invites us into an intimate relationship with nature, God, and love itself. Jess Reynolds weeps in the desert at night, meditates on heart emojis, lets a river of love run wildly in their body and together with their partner God goes to couples counseling to find their way. Jess Reynolds' lyric poetry flows like water between genders, between body and spirit, and between earth and sky.

To Wake, To Rise: Meditations on Justice and Resilience edited by Rev. William G. Sinkford. The 2017 edition of the InSpirit Series is an anthology of 29 poems, prayers, and reflections about resisting oppression and keeping the faith in social action work. Written by a range of contributors, including ministers and lay leaders, these readings are ideal for both private contemplation and for use in worship. Collected and introduced by a former president of the UUA—and the first Black person to hold that position—these meditations are both a support for activists and a call to action in a new era of political and social division.

Book Group News

Marvin Evans Reading Group
Tuesday, October 13, 1:30 p.m.
Virtual Discussion Using Zoom

In its virtual meeting this week, the Marvin Evans Reading Group chose The Happiness Hypothesis by Jonathan Haidt for its next discussion, scheduled for October 13. This insightful book explores concepts, understandings, and perspectives on happiness and meaningful living espoused by significant thinkers of the past, examining them in the light of contemporary psychological research, and extracting lessons that apply to our modern lives.
