News and Announcements

From the Worship Team

Join Our Team!

If you would like to give virtual worship design a try, now is the perfect time. The Worship Team is looking to expand its membership and add a few new Worship Associates as well as people to help with virtual worship Tech Support and Video Editing. Below is a short list of the responsibilities for these two positions.

Worship Associate

- 1. Provide meaningful spiritual/emotional reflection on worship service themes.
- 2. Record service elements, such as the Welcome, Offering, and Chalice Lighting/Extinguishing.
- 3. Coordinate with Rev. Zackrie and other members of the Worship Team to set service themes and craft worship services.
- 4. Help support other worship activities as requested (i.e. Wednesday Morning Reflection, memorial services, etc.)

The ideal candidate for this role would be someone comfortable recording service elements and working with the rest of the team to design and edit worship services.

Tech Support

1. Help service leaders produce video clips for Sunday worship service elements (meditations, prayers, readings, etc.).

- 2. Provide technical assistance to people participating in virtual services (i.e. help record testimonials or create picture slideshows)
- 3. Add lyrics to recorded hymns.
- 4. Act as a host for YouTube Live/Zoom chat during the worship service and coffee hour.
- Use software like Open Broadcast Software, Shot Cut, and Zoom to provide technical support to guest preachers. (Some training will be provided by Rev. Zackrie.)
- 6. Help others develop technical proficiency.

The ideal person for this role would have some experience with video production and editing--or be eager to learn.

If you are interested in getting involved in the design and implementation of virtual worship services in any of the ways outlined above, please contact Penny Brewer.

From the Program Council

July Update

The Cedars Program Council, chaired by Board Vice-President, Helen Nissani, spent a significant portion of its Zoom-supported virtual meeting last week discussing the impact of COVID-19 on Cedars and why--or whether--our activities need to adjust or be different as a consequence.

Concerns were aired that our sense of congregational community is shrinking or weakening because we cannot gather or meet directly with one another. Few families with children are participating in the virtual activities. Many activities, such as Cedars Team meetings and social gatherings, fundraising and justice events, community collaborations like Super Suppers, and Dinner Connections in each other's homes are not possible now, and they may not be possible for some time to come.

Pastoral Care and Covid-19

In recent discussion within the Cedars Pastoral Care Team, Rev. Zackrie confirmed that he would appreciate being informed if any member of the Cedars community tests positive for Covid-19. The information will remain confidential if the person so wishes, but Rev. Zackrie's awareness could help with contact tracing as well as determining what support and possible services could be offered by Pastoral Care Team members and perhaps the larger Cedars UU community as well.

Cedars Movie Group Discussion

You're Invited! Tonight: July 24, 7:00 p.m. (6:45 Start-up for check-in)

The Cedars Movie Group meets monthly for social evenings and discussion of a selected movie that participants have viewed previously. Tonight, the group will meet virtually to discuss the 2011 romantic comedy, Midnight in Paris, written and directed with a satisfying blend of whimsy and wisdom by Woody Allen.

Vacationing in Paris, a screenwriter and aspiring novelist has taken to touring the city alone. On one late-night excursion, he encounters a group of strange revelers who sweep him along, apparently back in time as well, for a night with some of the Jazz Age's notable icons of art and literature. The more time he spends with these heroes of the past, the more dissatisfied he becomes with the present.

As the trailer for this movie said, Paris in the morning is beautiful, Paris in the afternoon is charming, and Paris in the evening is enchanting, but Paris after midnight is magic - as is the film itself.

The film is available for streaming on Netflix, Amazon Prime, and YouTube, and the discussion will be hosted by Patti Shannon, using the Zoom meeting platform. For a link and password, email Pat and Dean Sampson for information, and join the discussion!

Cedars Creativity Fair 2020

Coping with Social Isolation See What Others Have Been Doing

As first announced several weeks ago, we have organized a Cedars response to the social isolation in which we all now find ourselves. Missing each other, our identity as a congregational community is suffering, although we are coping as individuals.

Our response has been to re-imagine and present a virtual version of the several after-service Creativity Fairs that were held in Webster Hall in recent years. Organized to provide opportunities to see and appreciate artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs also helped us get to know each other better.

These observations led to an active conversation about what is needed and what might be possible. Clearly, the group saw a need to create opportunities for individuals to connect. Several suggestions were made: organizing direct phoning to Members and Friends to ask how they are doing: reaching out to help with social justice/action projects, such as take-out versions of Super Suppers; broadening participation in some of the virtual choir practices to create congregational hymn-sing sessions; and organizing virtual dinner parties or social get-togethers. It was suggested that there might be a good response to more virtual book and movie/video discussion aroups.

The group noted that the current Creativity Fair is intentionally seeking to help Members and Friends learn more about each other and deepen familiarity and friendships by showcasing shared interests and talents or capabilities that might otherwise go unrecognized.

Readers' Corner

Summer Adventures in Reading

Summer often can be a time of reflection and restoration -- a time to slow down and reinvest in our goals and dreams, for ourselves and for the wider world. Even though this summer is very different from any we've ever experienced, the UUA Insight Bookstore (bookstore@uua.org) suggests the following titles as sources of wisdom in these challenging times. (Book descriptions from the UUA website.)

The Measure of Our Lives: A Gathering of Wisdom

by Toni Morrison

At once the ideal introduction to Toni Morrison and a moving keepsake for her devoted readers, this treasury of quotations from her work is also accompanied by a foreword by Zadie Smith. Its compelling sequences of flashes of revelation -- stunning for their linguistic originality, keenness of psychological observation, and philosophical profundity-addresses issues of abiding interest in

Morrison's work, including the singular power of women, the original American sin of slavery, the bankruptcy of racial oppression, and the complex humanity and art of Black people. The Measure of Our Lives brims with elegance of style and mind and moral authority.

How to Love a Country: Poems by Richard Blanco

As presidential inaugural poet, educator, and advocate, Richard Blanco has crisscrossed the nation inviting communities to connect to the heart of human experience and our shared identity as a country. In this new collection of poems, Blanco continues to invite a conversation with all Americans. Through an oracular yet intimate and accessible voice, he addresses the complexities and contradictions of our nationhood and the unresolved sociopolitical matters that affect us all.

Seeking answers, Blanco digs deep into the very marrow of our nation through poems that interrogate our past and present and grieve our injustices, but also remember to celebrate our ideals and cling to our hopes. His message of interdependence and connection amidst the repeated heartache and tragedies we face speaks powerfully to today.

The Healing

by Gayl Jones

From the acclaimed author of Corregidora, The Healing follows Harlan Jane Eagleton, a Black faith healer, as she travels to small towns, converting skeptics, restoring minds, and healing bodies. But before she found her calling, Harlan had been a minor rock star's manager and, before that, a beautician. Harlan retraces her story to the beginning, when she once had a fling with the rock star's ex-husband

Now, the 2020 Cedars Creativity Fair has opened. Presented as an album of photos on our Cedars Facebook page, it is open to everyone, but it also is just a beginning. Everyone is invited to share what they've been doing or creating during this time of isolation.

Please join us by sharing what you have been doing, and enjoy the growing show! Use the link below to find the show!

and found herself infatuated with an Afro-German horse dealer. Along the way she's somehow lost her own husband, a medical anthropologist now traveling with a medicine woman across eastern Africa. Harlan draws us deeper into her world and the mystery at the heart of her tale: the story of her first healing.

Her book is a lyrical and, at times, humorous exploration of the struggle to let go of pain, anger, and even love. Slipping seamlessly back through Harlan's memories in a language rich with the textured cadences of unfiltered dialogue, Gayl Jones weaves her story to its dramatic and unexpected beginning.

A New Home on the Web!

Cedars Website Gets a New Look

Thanks to some hard work behind the scenes over the past few months, Cedars has a new website! The cedarsuuchurch.org address has not changed, but what it brings you is completely rebuilt and refreshed.

A small team consisting of Carolyn Kempkes, Arlene Wade, Brian Leekley, and Richard Wilson spent many hours updating and enhancing content from our previous site and moving it all into a new website template created and offered by the UUA. The updated and more capable software allows a fresh and more appealing look, as well as easier access to the information it carries for Members, Friends, and Visitors. In addition, the new website is designed to present well on the small screens of smart phones.

On the home page, there is a direct link to the Cedars calendar at the right end of the green menu bar, and direct access into the Breeze directory is available for Members and Friends in the line of basic choices just above.
