New Year, New You

Sunday January 2nd
10:00 a.m.
Virtual Worship Service

Rev. Joe Rettenmaier

The Edmonds UU congregation will be sharing this service with Cedars.

From the outer realms of high-technology to the inner realms of lasting peace, we'll explore possibilities and breakthroughs that this new year may bring.

Rev. Rettenmaier received his M.Div. from Meadville Lombard Theological School in 2019. Prior to ministry, his professional life centered primarily on high-tech media productions and communications within startup organizations. His lifelong affinities for multi-modal communications continue to inform his pursuit of ministries which might liberate Earth from climate change, cultural oppression, racial supremacy, and more.

Can't Help Myself

Sunday January 9th
10:00 a.m.
In-Person Service in Webster Hall

Rev. Zackrie Vinczen
Johanna Munson, Worship Associate

In 2016, artists Sun Yuan and Peng Yu had a work titled "Can't Help Myself" installed in the Guggenheim Museum in New York City. Since the debut of the installation, viewers have been led to question many things about their relationship to technology and labor.

In this service we will reflect on the theme of the installation and consider what it can teach us about being human.

A Cedars Tradition Continues

Responding to our current reality, with our services constrained by the need for protective safety procedures, about forty of us gathered together in the Fay Bainbridge Park picnic shelter on Christmas Eve for a special outdoor service of “lessons and carols” led by Reverend Zackrie.

Carol singing and reflection, as well as cookies and cider, were enjoyed by all, and a roaring fire in the shelter’s rustic fireplace kept everyone warmed.

A follow-on virtual gathering provided an indoor service alternative for others appreciating and participating in the tradition.

News Flash! OWL Program Returning

Cedars is gathering a group of curious families from Cedars UU Church and Kitsap UU Church to experience the OWL Middle/Early High School Program in 2022.

The program consists of 25 workshops developed to address decision-making, clarify values, build interpersonal skills, and deepen understanding of spiritual, emotional, and societal aspects of sexuality which influence the decisions we make.

If you have a 7th, 8th, or 9th grade student who is interested, and your family will commit to 6 months of Sunday workshops and 2 retreat weekends, we will welcome you.

Please contact Nancy Philip for more information.

Be a part of Worship at Cedars

As we prepare to enter the fall and gear back up for the program year, we are looking for individuals ready to help with the creation of weekly worship. There are a few important roles that we are hoping to fill and find people willing to join the rest of the team in meaning making work we do.

Preaching: Once a month Rev. Zackrie is away from Cedars, and we need people willing to preach and lead services on these dates. This is your chance to share your thoughts on a topic with the rest of the community. Preaching can also provide you with a chance to deepen your own understanding on a topic as you research, write, and reflect in preparation.

Worship Tech Team: As we continue to navigate the presence of COVID-19 and begin conceptualizing what comes next with our online presence, we need people to assist with the technology side of things. Currently we hope to find a few individuals to help with recording and video editing. We also need help running the sound system at in-person services. No prior experience is necessary, but it does help to have a familiarity with meet regularly with other Cedars parents?

Our Parent Chalice Circle is a new venture of the Cedars Faith Formation Committee. The idea is to create a space where parents, grandparents, and caregivers can meet to share in the questions and experiences of nurturing faith formation in our children and in our own lives.

How can we support the spiritual lives of our children, teens, and young adults as they grapple with the day-to-day challenges of growing up as well as with big issue questions such as Covid, racism, climate change, politics, religion, reproductive justice, nuclear power, war?

We are meeting once a month and utilizing the UU Principles as touchstones and reference points for exploration.

Contact Cory Munson for more information.

Social Justice Committee News

Greetings! My name is Carol Ann Davidson and I am the Board liaison to a new unified Social Justice Committee.

The past two years have been hard for many. It is easy to feel helpless given some of the challenges we are facing in the world. Working together, even in small ways, can help to bring a sense of purpose and integrity through living our values. It can also help to ease anxiety. Many of our congregants have expressed the desire to get back into the community and recommit to social justice work and your Board of Trustees agrees. It is time to begin again!

Prior to the pandemic, Cedars had a Social Action Committee that focused on community service and a Social Justice Committee that focused on education and outreach events.

At present, both committees have dissolved although Super Suppers continue to be supported by a few former committee members. The Cedars Board's vision is to revitalize our efforts with a newly formed Social Justice Committee that will join together with the Faith Formation and Green Sanctuary Committee members to plan a year in which Cedars recommits to social action projects and social justice work on Bainbridge Island and North Kitsap.

If you are interested in learning more, please reach out to Carol Ann Davidson.

technology and a willingness to learn.

Worship Associates: In this role you get a chance to work with Rev. Zackrie and other service leaders to reflect on a topic and share your voice with others. This is a great opportunity for people to develop as a public speaker or experiment with creative ways of conveying ideas. In addition, being a worship associate is a great way to become more widely known within the Cedars community.

If you are interested in joining the worship team in any of these roles or have questions, please email Rev. Zackrie at minister@cedarsuuchurch.org

Evans Reading Group

We invite you to join us on Tuesday January 11th at 1:30 p.m.

Seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin Evans used to say, we meet to discuss books that can intrigue and might enlighten us.

Our January selection, proposed by Richard Wilson, is TAO: The Watercourse Way by Alan Watts. In this final (and posthumously published) product of a prolific and creative life of spiritual exploration, Alan Watts (with collaborator Al Chung-liang Huang), shared the deep and meaningful interrelationship of Taoism and the Chinese language.

"Just as Chinese writing is at least one step closer to nature than ours, so the ancient philosophy of the Tao is of a skillful and intelligent following of the course, current, and grain of natural phenomena — seeing human life as an integral feature of the world process, and not as alien and opposed to it."

We will discuss the book (tentatively via Zoom) on January 11th. For more information contact Alan Miller or Mary Romeo.

Faithful Practices Reading Group

How's your prayer life? What spiritual practices ground you? Where do you find meaning throughout your week?

If you find yourself struggling to answer these questions, you're not alone. Many people struggle to talk about the spiritual dimensions of their life. If this describes you or you're simply interested

Wednesday January 5th
Time 1:00 p.m.

All knitters and crafters are warmly welcomed to meet at 1:00 to 2:30 on Wednesday, January 5th on Zoom. Linda Andrews will host and you can join us for any part of that time to chat, share ideas, or work on a project!

You can be a Climate Changemaker!

Changemakers are energetic, ardent advocates for environmental values making a world-changing difference, especially addressing the challenges of climate change.

Join them in taking an hour per week to call or write friends, utilities, newspapers, and representatives with a bunch of other awesome people. They are present at <https://www.climatechangemakers.org/> and will welcome your joining with them.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

See What Others Have Been Doing To Cope with Social Isolation

Our identity as a congregational community has been weakened by the COVID-19 pandemic, and one response has been to re-imagine virtual versions of the several after-service Creativity Fairs that were held in Webster Hall in recent years.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Please join the fun by sharing what you have been doing and enjoy the growing show using the link below!

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

Johanna Munson recently recalled her meditative walking (barefoot) of the Halls Hill labyrinth on Bainbridge and shared a technique for drawing and comprehending the underlying geometry of the traditional labyrinth as an approach to meditative relaxation and reflection.

Safe Gatherings at Cedars

Please note: Cedars' Board of Trustees is monitoring the Omicron situation and may make adjustments to the guidelines below due to the highly infectious nature of this variant.

Because we are responsible and follow the science, we need to be ready as a community to apply the safe behavior we practice in other parts of our lives to our spiritual home too. We should feel confident that we can safely gather as a community if we:

- Wear a mask.
- Vaccinate.
- Physically distance if indoors.
- Don't go near others if sick, exposed to COVID, or tested positive for COVID.

Our Board of Trustees recommendations for responsible behavior at in-person meetings and gatherings are as follow:

Webster Hall In-Person Services

All attendees must wear a mask and be vaccinated to sit indoors, but outdoor seating is available for anyone interested. Indoor seating capacity is limited so pre-registration is required. Dress warmly since doors and windows will be open.

Children under 12 can choose an hour of supervised fun; parents need to sign up to reserve spots for kids.

Home-Hosted (or other location) Meetings

The following guidelines should be followed for meeting in other locations:

Caring for one another is a core Unitarian practice, and the Cedars Pastoral Care Team is central to this ministry. We can offer a listening presence, connection, and hope to members of our Cedars community in times of need. We send cards, make phone calls, provide information resources and support family and friends who are caregivers.

The Team meets just once a month with our minister. We are now expanding the Team, and we would love to have you join us.

For more information about the Pastoral Care Team, please contact our office administrator, Carolyn Kerns at office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Pastoral Care Concerns

In discussion with the Pastoral Care Team, Rev. Zackrie confirmed that he would appreciate being informed if anyone in the Cedars community tests positive for Covid-19.

The information will remain confidential if the person so wishes, but Rev. Zackrie's awareness could help with contact tracing as well as determining what support and possible services could be offered by Pastoral Care Team members and perhaps the larger Cedars UU community as well.
