Resurrecting Hope

Easter Sunday March 31st
10:00 a.m.
In-Person Service in Webster Hall

Rev Zackrie Vinczen
Jenny Weaver, Worship Associate

For many followers of Jesus, the story of his life and ministry serve as a source of hope and inspiration. For this Easter service, we will reflect on these themes and consider where to find them in our contemporary lives.

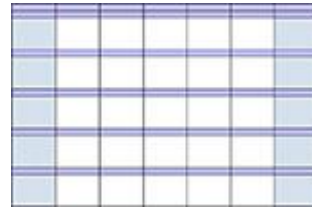

Adventures of a Neurology Nurse: How to Save Your Brain

Sunday April 7th
10:00 a.m.
In-Person Service in Webster Hall

Guest Speaker Meredith Patterson

Meredith Patterson worked as a neurology nurse for 30 years and wrote a book about keeping the brain fit and healthy, minimizing the risk of dementia in later life. She will share her stories, some brain health tips, and explain how a career in health care is in keeping with UU principles.

News and Announcements

March 2024 Special Collection

On Sunday March 31st, Cedars will be taking up a special collection for the People's Harm Reduction Alliance.

The People's Harm Reduction Alliance (PHRA) is a community-based nonprofit and drug user empowerment organization that has provided harm reduction and other health services to people who use drugs in the Pacific Northwest since 2007. PHRA operates programs in Seattle, Kitsap, & King Counties, as well as a mail-order program serving all of Washington State.

The PHRA's approach acknowledges that drug users are better served by compassion and respect than by criticism and punishment. That's why the PHRA strives to serve the needs of the drug-using community by distributing vital harm-reduction supplies within a respectful, non-judgmental context. They also serve the larger community by providing syringe disposal, naloxone (Narcan) distribution and training, as well as continued advocacy.

We hope you will join in supporting this important community work by making a contribution.

Article II: Principles or Values?

The UU community is abuzz about the proposed changes to Article II in the UUA Bylaws. That Article outlines some of the core elements of the Unitarian Universalist movement in the United States (Canada and other countries have their own guidance). In June we will vote on whether to change them.

We had an in-person Cedars Center discussion of the proposed changes last week and plan to continue the conversation in a Zoom session later in the month. For now, here are links to relevant information:

Musical Notes

Much hard work and dedication goes into providing music for our Sunday services. And each week we are grateful for those willing to make music and lead us all in song.

This week we offer special thanks to Emily Groff for music accompaniment.

Sunday Hymns:

1. Sing and Rejoice (#395)
2. Spirit of Life (#123)
3. Shall We Gather at the River (#1046)

Children's Faith Formation Needs You

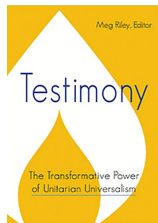

An enthusiastic group of parents has begun planning children's programming. Program activities will be scheduled in the Island School library on selected Sunday mornings and the help of other adults will be welcomed.

Seeing an active children's Faith Formation effort getting off the ground again is exhilarating. To volunteer your Community Kitchen on selected Wednesdays with free meals for those in need.

We now have a regular sign-up for you to use each month so that all in our congregation have a chance to participate. Please consider signing up for one or more slots here.

Testimony - The Transformative Power of Unitarian Universalism

Offered by our own Skinner House Press, this illuminating book shares personal stories from people whose lives have been dramatically transformed by Unitarian Universalism, finding renewed purpose and personal meaning in UU values and through participation in a congregational community such as Cedars. Together these vignettes paint a portrait of the real, felt impact of Unitarian Universalism.

For more information and purchase, see the InSpirit Bookstore at bookstore@uua.org.

Exploring Meditation

Join us for a monthly meditation gathering at the Cedars Center (located at 284 Madrona Way #128 in Winslow).

Throughout our session, we will delve into a variety of meditation techniques. As we meditate together, you'll have the opportunity to explore these techniques deeply. As the session draws to a close, there will be a chance to pose inquiries and, if you wish, share your personal meditation experiences with others.

Mark your calendar for the following dates from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m.

- April 24th
- May 29th
- June 26th

Writing as a Spiritual Practice

Discover the profound depths within yourself and the world around you through the transformative power of writing. Throughout the centuries, writing has served as a spiritual practice, illuminating hidden truths and connecting us to something greater.

Join the Cedars Spiritual Writing Group, a new monthly writing experience facilitated by Rev. Zackrie.

During each of these gatherings, you will be offered prompts that nourish your creative spirit, ignite your inspiration, and invite you into questioning. Moreover, these gatherings will also provide a space for deep reflection, contemplation, and sharing. Whether you choose to attend a single session or embark on the full journey, each gathering will offer the promise of a meaningful exploration of self and soul.

So mark your calendar for the following dates from 5-6 p.m.:

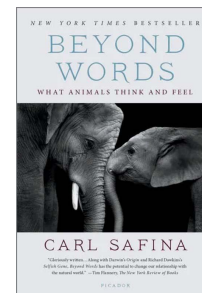

- April 10th: Responding to Art
- May 8th: Encounters in the Wild
- June 12th: TBD

Each session will take place at the Cedars Center in Winslow

Evans Reading Group

Organized 16 years ago as the Spirituality Book Group, this Cedars reading group assumed a new identity as the Evans Reading Group in 2020 to honor the Rev. Marvin Evans after his passing.

Our identity as a congregational community is strengthened by the activities and gatherings we enjoy together, as well as by the ways we can find to know each other better. Please feel free to join an on-going process of sharing news and details about the creative interests and accomplishments of each other as members and friends of Cedars UU Church. If you have something to share, send a photo and description to office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

See What Others Have Been Doing

Fran Korten says "It's spring on Bainbridge and time to work the pea patch. I got in 9 pea starts and 40 lettuce starts (more lettuce than we need -- the excess goes to Helpline House)."

In our time together, the group has read and discussed more than 60 books selected to intrigue and hopefully enlighten us in seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin used to say, and we are pleased to invite your participation with us in our ongoing practice.

Because we found our recent selection by Carl Safina deeply fascinating and inspiring, we have chosen another book by the same author as our next selection.

Interweaving decades of field observation with exciting discoveries about the brain, Safina's Beyond Words explores similarities between human and nonhuman consciousness, self-awareness, and empathy, suggesting that we need to re-evaluate our understandings and interactions with animals. Wise, passionate, and mind-opening, this book is ultimately a graceful examination of humanity's place in the world.

Join us for an interesting discussion via Zoom at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 28th. If you would like to be on our email list, let Mary Romeo know.
