News and Announcements

Sharing Why You Love Cedars

One of the things I love about Stewardship in the Spring is hearing people tell their stories about why Cedars UU Church is Important. Tyler Weaver gave a moving testimonial about why his family has been a part of Cedars for so long. You can hear him on the Cedars' website.

This year, we set up a Kudos Board

Cedars UU Church is a Welcoming Congregation and Green Sanctuary

Our Congregational Mission

where everyone can share a little about their experience at our Congregation. If you have time, go to Cedars Unitarian Universalist Church's Kudoboard and Click the "Add to Board" button. Then tell us what brings you back. What motivates you to join together for social action. Maybe share a memory of a special time with your Cedars' friends.

General Assembly 2024

General Assembly (or GA) is the annual gathering of Unitarian Universalists, where we conduct business of the Association, explore the theological underpinnings of our faith, and lean fully into our mission and principles.

Although typically organized as a physical assembly of congregational delegates, this year's GA will instead be virtual, with "Love Unites, Stories Ignite" as an organizing theme celebrating love as a profound and binding force transcending boundaries and historical traditions within our faith communities and beyond, while our stories and the power of storytelling can ignite change, inspire compassion, and help us build a more just and equitable world.

The 63rd General Assembly will take place virtually Thursday, June 20 through Sunday, June 23, and you can now view the GA schedule to see the lineup of informative workshops, inspirational worship services, and more!

Article II: Principles or Values?

The UU community is abuzz about the proposed changes to Article II in the UUA Bylaws. That Article outlines some of the core elements of the Unitarian Universalist movement in the United States (Canada and other countries

Discover the profound depths within yourself and the world around you through the transformative power of writing. Throughout the centuries, writing has served as a spiritual practice, illuminating hidden truths and connecting us to something greater.

Join the Cedars Spiritual Writing Group, a new monthly writing experience facilitated by Rev. Zackrie.

During each of these gatherings, you will be offered prompts that nourish your creative spirit, ignite your inspiration, and invite you into questioning. Moreover, these gatherings will also provide a space for deep reflection, contemplation, and sharing. Whether you choose to attend a single session or embark on the full journey, each gathering will offer the promise of a meaningful exploration of self and soul.

So mark your calendar for the following dates from 5-6 p.m.:

Support Southern Resident Orcas and Salmon

Sandy Spears is looking for volunteers to walk in Bainbridge Island's Grand Old Fourth parade (with its typical 18,000 member audience) to demonstrate support for the protection and continuing presence of the endangered Southern Resident Orcas and Salmon in our local waters.

The walk is one mile, and you can hold a sign or support a walkable orca or salmon float. We will need to be in the Winslow parade's participant assembly area at about 1:00 or 2:00 p.m.

For more information or to volunteer,

Testimony - The Transformative Power of Unitarian Universalism

Offered by our own Skinner House Press, this illuminating book shares personal stories from people whose lives have been dramatically transformed by Unitarian Universalism, finding renewed purpose and personal meaning in UU values and through participation in a congregational community such as Cedars. Together these vignettes paint a portrait of the real, felt impact of Unitarian Universalism.

For more information and purchase, see the InSpirit Bookstore at bookstore@uua.org.

As the session draws to a close, there will be a chance to pose inquiries and, if you wish, share your personal meditation experiences with others.

Mark your calendar for the following dates from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2024

Our identity as a congregational community is strengthened by the activities and gatherings we enjoy together, as well as by the ways we can find to know each other better. Please feel free to join an on-going process of sharing news and details about the creative interests and accomplishments of each other as members and friends of Cedars UU Church. If you have something to share, send a photo and description to office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

See What Others Have Been Doing

please contact Sandy Spears at 713-705-7924. She currently has only four people, and needs at least 5 more! It's also really fun to be in a parade!

Henry David Thoreau

Best known today as a writer, naturalist, and social critic advocating simple living, environmental preservation, and civil disobedience, Thoreau will also be remembered for his unconventional religious faith, the "Gospel according to this moment" in a presentation by retired UU minister and Cedars' member Barry Andrews in Concord, Massachusetts, live-streamed on Zoom, Monday, May 6 at 7:00 - 9:30 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time (or 4:00 – 6:30 p.m. in our Pacific Daylight time).

Get tickets here and choose to attend online.

Evans Reading Group

Organized 16 years ago as the Spirituality Book Group, this Cedars reading group assumed a new identity as the Evans Reading Group in 2020 to honor the Rev. Marvin Evans after his passing.

In our time together, the group has read and discussed more than 60 books selected to intrigue and hopefully enlighten us in seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin used to say, and we are pleased to invite your participation with us in our ongoing practice.

Because we found our recent selection by Carl Safina deeply fascinating and inspiring, we have chosen another book by the same author as our next selection.

Interweaving decades of field observation with exciting discoveries about the brain, Safina's Beyond Words explores similarities between human and nonhuman consciousness, self-awareness, and empathy, suggesting that we need to re-evaluate our understandings and interactions with animals. Wise, passionate, and mind-opening, this book is ultimately a graceful examination of humanity's place in the world.

Dawn Weaver says "Only 4 more months, and we'll have tomatoes maybe?"

Join us for an interesting discussion via Zoom at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 28th. If you would like to be on our email list, let Mary Romeo know.

Fashion in the Forest

The 8th annual ReFashion Show is happening on May 19th at IslandWood! Check here for ticket information.

ReFashion's committee and community partners are dedicated to bringing you the latest in sustainable fashion on Bainbridge Island and the Seattle area while educating everyone on the environmental impact of clothing choices through speakers, workshops, fashion shows, conferences and web resources.
