News and Announcements

Congregational Decisions This Sunday

Our Annual All Congregational Meeting is on June 9th directly after the service. During this meeting, members will be able to vote on important agenda items. All Members and Friends are welcome to attend.

Cedars UU Church is a Welcoming Congregation

We will be voting on:

- An Advisory Vote on proposed revisions to the UUA's Article II section of their bylaws. This advisory vote, while not binding, will inform our delegates as they make this important vote at General Assembly in two weeks. LINKS: Proposed changes to Article II of the UUA Bylaws; Comparison of Current 7 Principles to Proposed Values
- Acceptance of The Rev. Jessica Star Rockers as an Affiliate Community Minister. Rev. Jessica has asked Rev. Zackrie Vinczen and the Board of Trustees if Cedars UU Church would accept her as an "Affiliated Community Minister"; which refers to those who have collaborated with and developed a mutually benefiting relationship with a specific congregation or UU organization to serve the community as a Unitarian Universalist. This is not a paid position, but rather an understanding between Cedars, Rev. Zackrie, and Rev. Jessica that acknowledges her ministry through our congregation. LINK: Affiliate Minister Agreement.
- Adopting the presented 2024-2025 budget. The Board and the Budget Leadership Team have worked hard to present a budget that will allow us to maintain Cedars programs and look toward growth in the coming year. LINKS: Budget Leadership Team Memo; 2024-25 Proposed Budget
- Voting on Board of Trustees Candidates; Rod Kempkes and Andrea Barnes' 2 year term expires this year, but they are willing to extend their term one more year. We will vote on an extension to their terms. Gregory Cook, Sandy Spears and Rebecca Kim are on our slate of candidates for a two year term on the Board of Trustees.

The democratic process is a hallmark of the Unitarian Universalist experience. I always learn a great deal from our congregational meetings, and become more invested in the work we all do together. I look forward to seeing you there.

Musical Notes

Much hard work and dedication goes into providing music for our Sunday services. And each week we are grateful for those willing to make music and lead us all in song.

This week we offer special thanks to Musician Emily Groff.

Sunday Hymns:

1. Gather the Spirit (#347)
2. Building Bridges (#1023) Hymn of the Month
3. Spirit of Life (#123)

It's Time for the Annual Report!

If you are a Committee Leader, please write a concise report summarizing your committee's activity between July 1, 2023 and June 30, 2024. This can be in either bullet point or paragraph form. Email the finished report to the Office Manager at office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

If you have any questions, please contact Jeff at philip.jeff@gmail.com.

You can be part of this

Climate Smart Bainbridge is going on both offense and defense through political campaigns until November and would love to have your participation.

General Assembly 2024

General Assembly (or GA) is the annual gathering of Unitarian Universalists, where we conduct business of the Association, explore the theological underpinnings of our faith, and lean fully into our mission and principles.

Although typically organized as a physical assembly of congregational delegates, this year's GA will instead be virtual, with "Love Unites, Stories Ignite" as an organizing theme celebrating love as a profound and binding force transcending boundaries and historical traditions within our faith communities and beyond, while our stories and the power of storytelling can ignite change, inspire compassion, and help us build a more just and equitable world.

The 63rd General Assembly will take place virtually Thursday, June 20 through Sunday, June 23, and you can now view the GA schedule to see the lineup of informative workshops, inspirational worship services, and more!

Article II: Principles or Values?

The UU community is abuzz about the proposed changes to Article II in the UUA Bylaws. That Article outlines some of the core elements of the Unitarian Universalist movement in the United States (Canada and other countries have their own guidance). In June we will vote on whether to change them.

We had an in-person Cedars Center discussion of the proposed changes several weeks ago and plan to continue the conversation in a Zoom session later in the month. For now, here are links to relevant information:

Beliefs & Principles

For some perspective on the Article II proposal and what it could mean with regard to our ongoing identity and practices, it might be helpful to review the summary of beliefs and principles

We will gather at our regular 7:00 p.m. meeting time on June 17 to write addresses or postcards encouraging passage of clean energy platforms, and in afternoons of the last Sundays of July, August, and September to write letters ensuring that the Washington Climate Commitment Act is not overturned.

Children's Faith Formation Needs You

An enthusiastic group of parents has begun planning children's programming. Program activities will be scheduled in the Island School library on selected Sunday mornings and the help of other adults will be welcomed.

Seeing an active children's Faith Formation effort getting off the ground again is exhilarating. To volunteer your assistance, please email Jeff Philip at president@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Writing as a Spiritual Practice

Discover the profound depths within yourself and the world around you through the transformative power of writing. Throughout the centuries, writing has served as a spiritual practice, illuminating hidden truths and connecting us to something greater.

Join the Cedars Spiritual Writing Group, a new monthly writing experience facilitated by Rev. Zackrie.

During each of these gatherings, you will be offered prompts that nourish your creative spirit, ignite your inspiration, and invite you into questioning. Moreover, these gatherings will also provide a space for deep reflection, contemplation, and sharing. Whether you choose to attend a single session or embark on the full journey, each gathering will offer the promise of a meaningful exploration of self and soul.

So mark your calendar for the following currently present on the UUA's own website as identified by the late Rev. Dr. Forrest Church:

"In Unitarian Universalism, you can bring your whole self: your full identity, your questioning mind, your expansive heart.

Together, we create a force more powerful than one person or one belief system. As Unitarian Universalists, we do not have to check our personal background and beliefs at the door: we join together on a journey that honors everywhere we've been before.

Our beliefs are diverse and inclusive. We have no shared creed. Our shared covenant (the seven Principles) supports "the free and responsible search for truth and meaning." Though Unitarianism and Universalism were both liberal Christian traditions, this responsible search has led us to embrace diverse teachings from Eastern and Western religions and philosophies.

Unitarian Universalists believe more than one thing. We think for ourselves, and reflect together, about important questions:

- The existence of a Higher Power
- Life and Death
- Sacred Texts
- Prayer and Spiritual Practices

We are united in our broad and inclusive outlook, and in our values, as expressed in our seven Principles.

We are united in shared experience: our open and stirring worship services, religious education, and rites of passage; our work for social justice; our quest to include the marginalized; our expressions of love."

The most significant concern raised by the Article II change proposal is its apparent disregard for the seven principles, and consequently whether it is an acceptable portrayal of who we are as individuals and as a faith community. Worth noting however, is that the seven words giving conceptual form to the proposal's diagram may themselves be seen to represent the seven principles, and consequently give meaningful form to the proposal.

Super Supper and Community Kitchen Sign-Ups

Cedars, in partnership with Kol Shalom as members of the Bainbridge Island Interfaith Council, offers Super Supper dinners on the last Tuesday of each month. We have a regular sign-up for you to use each month to provide various dishes and to assist with setup, serving, and cleanup, so that all in our congregation have a chance to

Support Southern Resident Orcas and Salmon

Sandy Spears is looking for volunteers to walk in Bainbridge Island's Grand Old Fourth parade (with its typical 18,000 member audience) to demonstrate support for the protection and continuing presence of the endangered Southern Resident Orcas and Salmon in our local waters.

For more information or to volunteer, please contact Sandy Spears at 713-705-7924. She currently has only four people, and needs at least 5 more! It's also really fun to be in a parade!

Evans Reading Group

Organized 17 years ago as the Spirituality Book Group, this Cedars reading group assumed a new identity as the Evans Reading Group in 2020 to honor the Rev. Marvin Evans after his passing.

In our time together, the group has read and discussed more than 60 books selected to intrigue and hopefully enlighten us in seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin used to say, and we are especially pleased to invite your participation with us now in the reading and discussion of a very significant and recently published work by one of our own Cedars members, titled The Gospel According To This Moment: The Spiritual Message Of Henry David Thoreau by the Rev. Barry Andrews (available through Barry, University of Massachusetts Press or Amazon).

Primarily known as a writer, a naturalist, and an advocate of environmental preservation, civil disobedience and simple living, Thoreau's spirituality was in the woods, not in a church, and primarily had to do with transcendent experiences encountered in the natural world.

participate. Please consider signing up for one or more slots here.

Cedars is also now committed to leading the preparation and serving of a free meal to anyone in the community every other month through the Suquamish Community Kitchen. These meals require many helping hands to prepare, serve, and clean up. Please consider signing up for one of the team member roles on one or more of the upcoming dates (July 10, September 11, and November 13) here.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2024

Our identity as a congregational community is strengthened by the activities and gatherings we enjoy together, as well as by the ways we can find to know each other better. Please feel free to join an on-going process of sharing news and details about the creative interests and accomplishments of each other as members and friends of Cedars UU Church. If you have something to share, send a photo and description to office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

See What Others Have Been Doing

Patti Shannon says "Happy Birthday to Ellie - Three years old today."

Join us for an interesting discussion via Zoom at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 26th. If you would like to be on our email list, let Mary Romeo know.

Exploring Meditation

Join us for a monthly meditation gathering at the Cedars Center (located at 284 Madrona Way #128 in Winslow).

Throughout our session, we will delve into a variety of meditation techniques. As we meditate together, you'll have the opportunity to explore these techniques deeply. As the session draws to a close, there will be a chance to pose inquiries and, if you wish, share your personal meditation experiences with others.

Mark your calendar for the following dates from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m.

2024 Rotary Auction: Volunteers Needed

June 29th – July 6th

It is that time of year again. If you are interested in volunteering for this year's Rotary Auction, you can go to the volunteer site to sign-up.

More specifically, folks from Cedars are very involved in the Green Team (Jane Martin) and Lawn and Garden (Mike Cox) among others so we would welcome your help. But pick the area you are interested in helping and come make a difference in our community and have some fun.

If you are interested in more details about the event or volunteering, feel free to reach out to Mike Cox (toxman57@gmail.com or 206-799-3725).
